Practice Profile

Ms. Yeung pursued her interests in Sociology and Political Science at the University of Toronto, Canada for 2 years before attending the University of Bristol, UK to read law. While taking a gap year to complete the newly implemented Conversion Exams for Overseas Graduates, she did a few mini-puillages at different chambers and had the opportunity to observe and learn under some of the most respected senior counsel in town.

After completing PCLL at the University of Hong Kong, Ms. Yeung started her pupillage under Mr. Philip Dykes, S.C. and Ms Wing Kay Po and was called to the bar in 2011. She has worked as a junior counsel with leading barristers such as Mr. Ronny Wong S.C., Mr. Peter Duncan, S.C., and Mr. John Litton, KC. She devoted most of her earlier practice in white collar criminal crime, involving high profile clients controlling both Hong Kong and mainland listed companies. Later on, she has worked on a litany of HK-Mainland civil cases relating to shareholders disputes and loan agreement disputes. She has since developed a broad criminal practice as well, acting for the HKSAR Legal Aid Duty Lawyer Scheme as a duty lawyer, appearing at court regularly representing defendants for various criminal offences.
